MEMBERSHIP in the SAN DIEGO HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The San Diego Historical Society cordially invites you to participate in our efforts to preserve San Diego's history and join in adventures through our heritage.

Membership brings involvement with the preservation of historic structures, and participation in the Society's historical institutes, gallery previews and receptions, conferences, symposiums, lectures, films, guided tours, field trips, exhibits, special commemorative events and Conversations on Antiques—at large discounts when fees are charged.

Membership provides for support of Serra Museum, Library and Tower Gallery, Villa Montezuma (Shepard House), and the Society sponsored archaeological excavations and historic building surveys.

Membership includes subscriptions to the Society's quarterly Journal of San Diego History, San Diego's only illustrated periodical dedicated exclusively to the publication of authoritative articles on all facets of our history; and to the Society's monthly Newsletter on general historical events and Society activities.

Membership provides for 20% discounts on purchases from the Society's Book Store and Gallery Sales.

And for those who qualify, membership brings participation in the activities of the Society's Women's Committee and Young Historian programs.
